With a holistic vision for buildings, infrastructure, and cities, SOCOTEC has 70 years of experience in the sustainability, longevity, performance, and safety of the Built Environment.

SOCOTEC Middle East, a trusted third party in testing, inspection, certification is launching its new website to help clients identify all services complying with Building codes while offering performance and sustainability alongside the lifecycle of built assets.

Dubai, April 24th, 2024

SOCOTEC Middle East, the market leader in testing, inspection and certification (TIC) for the construction and infrastructure end-market offers end-to-end solutions for all building types, including commercial, residential, industrial, and listed buildings alongside the whole asset lifecycle.

The challenges faced by today's complex construction and built environment, have impacts on all types of buildings. Modern buildings pose environmental challenges during both construction and maintenance, while heritage buildings face unique hurdles due to accelerated climate change and material integration.

Roland Marie, General Manager of SOCOTEC Middle East, says: "Our leading position in the Building and Real Estate market, as well as in the infrastructure sector is based on the trustworthy relations between our community of 60 engineers and experts and our clients in KSA, UAE, Lebanon and the whole Middle East where we have 4 offices in total. Our longstanding experience allowed us to work on many significant projects such as Doha Metro, SeaWorld Abu Dhabi, Kingdom Tower Riyadh and Water Front project Beirut. We are proud to serve our clients in shaping new construction with a sustainable and safety focus."

For Hervé Montjotin, CEO of the SOCOTEC Group: "With accelerated changes in the societies and under the stress of the climate crisis, offering a holistic approach of buildings as complex systems evolving over time, is critical and sought after. Our unique expertise in building envelope, building control, fire engineering, sustainability, IDI and structural engineering, infrastructure disciplines, is bringing high value market to our clients. We are setting new industry standards and meeting with new regulatory, health & safety and environmental requirements."
